Ultima II The Revenge of the Enchantress (1982) was the only Ultima game released by Sierra Online and followed the same formula as the previous game in the series. Trivia: It was completely programmed in Assembly!

Love this box.
Btw: Ultima 1 - The Original and Ultima Escape from MT. Drash were also released by Sierra

Ok, my bad about the Sierra releases. The Atari 8-Bit port of the first Ultima was released by Sierra, the original Apple II release was from California Pacific Computer Company. Mt Drash is an interesting game, but I suppose it IS an Ultima game, however loosely related!

It's still debated whether Escape from Mt. Drash is considered a true Ultima. While Sierra owned the rights to the Ultima name, the game was not created by @RichardGarriott and had little to do with existing storylines or settings. Garriott did give his blessing for its creation.

True. I would say it is. Just as we made Ultima - Runes of Virtue. While they are not on the 1-9 core paths, they were made to be an Ultima. Keith Zabalaoui who wrote Drash, also illustrated the original Akalabeth loading screens & ziplock cover.
